

Strengthening competitiveness for the international market

To strengthen international competitiveness in the long term, experienced interim managers support automotive manufacturers and suppliers in successfully overcoming the challenges of industrial transformation.

What the taskforce Practice Group MOBILITY offers you

Mobility- Expertise

Experienced interim managers with strategic foresight, strong implementation skills, and technical understanding

Global & intercultural competence

Experience with international value chains; mandates in Eastern Europe, China, India, and the USA

Leadership & Cultural change

Promoting personal responsibility, adaptability, innovation, and a culture of learning

Strategy Implementation

Portfolio changes, new business areas; partnerships, M&A, carve-out, and PMI projects

Restructuring & Reorganization

Comprehensive reorganization and restructuring expertise, cost reductions, delivery capability, site closures, PMO

Supply chain design

Optimization of the production network, relocations, closures; supplier management and supply chain resilience

Technological change

New technologies, software skills, accelerated product development, automation, and AI

Digital infrastructure

Data quality, system integration, cyber security, streamlined system landscape, and efficient systems taskforce

- is a superior provider of temporary management services specialized in the placement of experienced interim managers and project managers
- offers first-class management resources in the following areas: General Management | Finance & Controlling | Operational Excellence | Program & Project Management | Business Development & Sales | Digitalization | Supply Chain Management | M&A / PMI | Restructuring & Turnaround | Change Management | Sustainability